Why we talk about that project in Lublin?

The project was prepared and coordinates by the University of Criminal Justice in Warsaw

Why we talk about that project at the Regional Inspectorate of Prison Service in Lublin ?
We organized conferences together with the President of the District Court, we talked about post-judgment mediation, the needs of inmates in this area, and possibilities. The last conferens before pandemia was ended with the conclusion:

Let's start acting!

The main goals of the project:

1. Reducing recurrence to crime.

2. Improvement of the situation of crime victims in the Regional Inspectorate Prison Serwis in Lublin.

The detailed objectives include:

1. Implementation of postgraduate studies in mediation and restorative justice for professional probation officers, employees and PS officers.
2. Preparation of mediation rooms in the penitentiary units - prisons at the OISW in Lublin.
3. Increasing the availability of mediators as part of the mediators' duty hours.
4. Assigning coordinators for mediation and restorative justice.
5. Promotion of mediation.

! The first was cooperation with volunteers

- Agnieszka Lewicka- Zelent and Ewa Trojanowska

The idea of mediation was part of social rehabilitation programs related to solving family problems, teaching conflict resolution, preventing aggression and violence, as well as shaping socially desired attitudes. Since 2015, we have been operating with the support of the Maria Curie-Skłodowska University in Lublin in several prisons. The first voluntary program of prof. Agnieszka Lewicka worked at the Penitentiary in Włodawa and Biała- Podlaska six years ago. Agnieszka and others prepared programs for people sentenced for various crimes, she prepared always evaluation for the end of each of their activities.
